COMPLAINT

Now comes Mouldagraph Corporation, by its attorney, Stephen P. Swisher and for its complaint says as follows:

1. Mouldagraph is a West Virginia Corporation doing business in the City of Nitro, West Virginia and is now and at all times relevant herein was engaged in the business of general machine and industrial repair work, welding and fabrication, with offices located at 4134 First Avenue, Nitro, Putnam County, West Virginia, serving among others the coal industry throughout the State of West Virginia and adjoining states.

2. Justice Low Seam Mining, Inc. is a business licensed to do business in West Virginia, engaged in the mining industry with corporate offices situate at 302 South Jefferson Street – Suite 600, Roanoke, Virginia 24011.

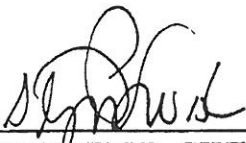

3. The Defendant contacted the plaintiff on numerous occasions to perform services and work for the defendant, the nature and extent of such work as well as the costs charged by the plaintiff are set forth in the invoices attached herein, named collectively PLAINTIFF'S EXHIBIT 1 and incorporated herein with said invoices totaling $20,652.00.

4. At one point the Defendant issued a check to the Plaintiff in the amount of $9,800.00 but that check was returned for insufficient funds.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays for judgment against the defendant in the amount of $20,652.00, pre and post judgment interest and for such other and further relief that the Court may see fit to grant.
